Travel Training Academy (TTA) - Free Short Courses

For those students who have never studied travel and tourism before, we have a range of short courses available for you to undertake and prepare yourself ready for the academic year to start in September. If you want to learn how to check customers in at an airport, deal with reservations in a hotel setting and sell package holidays, then these short courses will give you a taste of what skills you actually need to perform the job roles.

Courses include:

- Learn2Checkin
- Learn2beCabinCrew
- Learn2beaRep
- Learn2BookaRoom
- Learn2Book

These short courses are designed to build up your skills and knowledge in the travel and tourism sector to prepare you for employment. They are self-taught where it will be marked at the end automatically and you will receive a certificate at the end of completion. If you would like to enrol onto these short courses to prepare you for starting your travel and tourism qualification in September, please email your details to luke.jones@leedscitycollege.ac.uk and you will be set up. You must include:

- Your full name
- What level are you enrolling onto in September
- Email address

Please bear in mind that these courses have limited spaces, so if you are interested please get in contact as soon as you can. Once you have sent your detail across, someone will be in touch to give you your login details and explain how the short courses work.

Good luck, and see you in September
